

Northeast Family Center

Payment Policies:

- Payment for programs at the Northeast Family Center is due prior to services rendered.
- If an account becomes more than one week delinquent, the participant will not be allowed to attend the program until the account is made current.
- Any account reaching 30 days or more past due will be submitted to our collections agency.
- Returned checks will incur a $15 fee, and payment will be due within 5 days in the amount of cash, cashier's check or debit card. If an account reaches two returned checks in one calendar year, the NFC will no longer accept checks as a form of payment.

Payment Options:

- 1) The NFC accepts cash, check, money orders, debit cards and credit cards. Cash is only accepted when paying in person.
- 2) Mail your check to the Northeast Family Center.
- 3) Drop off your payment in person at the Northeast Family Center, M-F 7am-6pm.
NOTE: If our Office Manager is unavailable there is a payment drop at the front desk.
- 4) Add the Northeast Family Center to your bill-pay option at your bank.
- 5) Pay over the phone with your debit or credit card.
